ABOUT

Andre Aboolian, MD, FACS has devoted his life to helping improve his patients' confidence and self-esteem. Starting with a welcoming and intimate setting at your first consultation, Dr. Aboolian provides a warm environment where you can relax and determine what procedures are best for your desired results.

With over a decade of experience, his Beverly Hills plastic surgery practice prides itself on providing personalized, high-quality work to ensure that you look and feel your best.

What Dr. Aboolian works to accomplish, rather than forcing you into a single type of beauty, is to help smooth and balance your features and help your unique beauty shine through. Whether you are looking to achieve a more curvaceous figure, tighter skin, or a more youthful glow, the doctor has the skill you need to make the changes you are looking for.
