ABOUT

A California native with deep roots in the Chiropractic profession, Dr. Awender is a second-generation chiropractor with over 15 family members practicing chiropractic throughout North America. His family has been serving the San Francisco Bay Area since 1961 and Dr. Awender has been involved locally and globally in the profession. He has served on mission trips to El Salvador, Panama, Venezuela, Mexico and South Africa.

With grandparents who emigrated from Mexico (maternal) and Germany (paternal), Dr. Awender recognizes the limited resources for immigrants to obtain chiropractic care and has made it his mission to serve all walks of life with a heart for the underserved.
